

WILSON'S AIM.

Pittsburgh Dispatch.—Wilson is evidently determined to break the Solid South.

THE AMERICAN COURT.

Troy Times.—The Wilson bill declares for ad valorem duties. The foreigner has a friend at the American court.

TWO KINDS.

Chicago Tribune.—The cold wave from Manitoba got here just in time to meet the cold wave of the Tariff smashers at Washington.

WHAT TO DO WITH WEDDING CAKE.

Atchison Globe.—If you have any wedding cake given you put it under your pillow to dream on. Your sleep will be pleasanter than if you ate it.

CIVILIZATION IS TOTTERING.

Chicago Journal.—Two Princeton collegians have been fined $20 each for annoying and ill-treating a Chinaman. Civilization is rapidly growing softer and tottering to its fall. The last thing we know college hazing will be dragged into the courts and treated like any other ruffianism.

HOW THE WILSON TARIFF WAS MADE.

Boston Journal.—It is certainly a curious coincidence that the particular kind of fandango which Congressman Stevens manufactures is given a higher rate of protection in the new bill than other fanfrels. This may be only a coincidence, but it is of a kind which a high-minded and unselfish man would deeply regret. Let us hope that this discrimination was forced upon Mr. Stevens against his will.

AN ENGLISH VIEW OF OTHER NATIONS.

London Truth.—Edited by H. Labouchere.—We English, dear Lady Betty, are rightous race; an altogether superior people. But our neighbors do not love us. The reason for this is simple. We have too high an opinion of ourselves, and too low an opinion of others.

According to the popular estimate; Americans are vulgar, French are immoral, Russians are barbarians, Italians are beggars, Spaniards are cutthroats, Germans are boors, Greeks are sharpers, Australians are convicts, Swiss are harpies, Turks are unspeakable, and every other people—below contempt.

Foreigners are, in fact, deceitful, effeminate, irreligious, immoral, uncouth and unwholesome.

Any Englishman is a match for any seven of them.

The only wonder to me is that the nations do not arise and annihilate us.

A NEW YORK syndicate is quietly buying up extensive coal and timber tracts in Moran and Elliott counties.

RAILROAD tickets to any point at the lower passenger rates. Baggage checked through destination. Train will go to travel east upon or write to W. W. Wilcox, Agent C. O., Maysville, Ky.

INVEST, the county seat of Estill, had the most destructive fire in its history yesterday morning. The large livery stable of T. H. Barker, with contents, was burned. The scenes of A. D. Powell and Andy Campbell adjoining were destroyed. Loss about $3000. The fire started in the stable. Origin unknown.

BODY BURNED.

About half past three o'clock yesterday afternoon a little four-year-old son of Elsie Lewis, living at 150 West Second street, was badly burned.

The little fellow was playing in front of the grate when his clothes caught.

Out of the pocket of one of his clothes saved him from a horrible fate.

As it was his back was terribly burned, and though not dangerous the injuries are painful in the extreme.

Dr. G. M. Phillips was summoned and rendered prompt assistance.

AT THE LYCEUM.

One of the Most Successful Meetings Ever Held.

Last night the Y. M. C. A. Hall was "too full for utterance" with the most refined audience that ever got together in our city, the room being completely filled.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the President, Professor J. H. Rowland called the meeting to order and proceeded with the business of the evening.

At a few minutes past 7 o'clock the debate began, with one speaker absent, C. Barnes, who afterwards made his presence known by a wonderful speech.

We don't think the decision should have been made, as there were only two on one side who the winning side there were three speakers, who made it unfair. The necessary vote.

But after the debate came Hon. A. A. Wade, who we never heard so many complimentary words bestowed upon our person before he died.

The next meeting will be Friday evening in the room and on Sunday the regular Men's Meeting will occur.

This is one of the most places to spend an evening through the week.

Way!

The business way
to advertise is to take space by the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive, and change them at least as often, as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.

We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains.

If you have space by the year, it costs you no more,
and you can make it profitable by converting unsaleable goods into money, and reinvesting the money in those things which are salable.

Where is That Banner Now?
Greensburg (Ind.) Review.—During the last campaign the Democrats of this city displayed a bunting in their processions bearing this inscription:

VOTE FOR GROVES CLEVELAND
AND GET
$15 A BUSHEL
FOR YOUR WHEAT.

A liberal reward will be paid for that banner at this office, and no questions asked.

"CONSECRATION" and "dedication," in the White House vocabulary, have given way to "my intense feeling of responsibility."

THE President asserts in substance that he proposes to restore LILAKALANI to her throne if it can be done without endangering his own throne.

DURING the past seven days there were 257 business failures throughout the United States as against 235 for the corresponding week last year.

WHEN Mr. CLEVELAND AYKES IT is painfully evident that he cannot banish the Van Allen deal from his mind.

MR. CLEVELAND declares that even if the Wilson Bill should reduce the wages of workmen it would at least give them "steady employment." Right—"steady employment" in searching for work.

ACCORDING to Mr. CLEVELAND the Wilson Bill has been devised expressly to promote still further the interests of protected manufacturers. Another "eliminating atrocity of class legislation."

MR. CLEVELAND congratulates himself upon the success of MR. CLEVELAND as a civil service reformer. Whereof JOSIAH QUINCY and Headman turn their backs to hide the conflicting emotions that agitate them.

The cash in the United States Treasury making a total amount of $8,761,638 in the public debt. The gold reserve is down to $82,050,049, and the net cash balance is only $12,204,567. Since the beginning of the year the public debt has increased by $25,000,000, and the deficiency for the current year will be about $800, 000. This looks very much like it was a good time to reduce the Tariff—eh?

to a skin-and-bones condition. He states that he was entirely cured by Dr. Hale's Household Ton and can now eat anything. This greatest medicine known is sold at 25 and 50 cents per package at Powers & Reynolds' Drugstore.

HIGH-PITCHED VOICES.

One result of increased tone in the streets of the French Capital.

Have you ever noticed how sonorous and high-pitched are the voices of the Parisians? They give a agreeable sound to the streets of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. It is apparently impossible for them to modulate it, and even when they import sounds to you they do so so whispery so sound that like the sough of a cage which is cracked, the confidence is addressed by also of hundreds of people besides. This is attributable to the fact that Paris is probably the noisiest city of the old world. The people are obliged to speak louder in order to make themselves heard at all. The noises are bewildering in their variety, and the din is increasing. To begin with, the Paris omnibus drivers are very loud, and the Paris omnibus drivers that must be seen and heard in order to appreciate its ponderous size and weight. It is very much as if one of the big New York cars were placed on ordinary streets and provided with a cable rope to the roof, thus "over the old cobblestones" in Paris, and the trade routes are ways that are still the rule not the exception in Parisian streets. Beside these big Percheron horses, harnessed and drivers, who seem to consider it absolutely necessary to exceed their usual speed, there are the long timers in every street, those are all kinds of other atrocious noises to which the police have hitherto affected to turn a deaf ear. From early morning until late at night the streets are surrounded by the noise of a great variety of trades each of whom has his own particular cry, and it is not an uncommon thing for a dozen of these severans to pass a given point in one hour, each yelling at the top of his voice. There are the bakers—men—the milkmen, the butchers, the knife-grinders, with their shrill brass horns, the beer and wine-tap vendors, who play an exasperating, ear-splitting tune on an instrument of their own invention fashioned from old tin cans, the peddlers of tin-ware, the purchasers of old wine casks, who intones the awful word "Tonneaux!" in such a manner as to render it audible for half a mile or more, and many others of the same sort which it would be difficult to name. The new prefect of police has determined, I understand, to put a stop to all these trade cries, except in cases where licenses have been obtained and heavily paid for.

It is sold at the same price as any other Mayville paper, except copy or 25 cents a month, delivered by carrier or sent by mail. If ville, you can get it in THE

BLOODY CRIME.

A Mother and Daughter Butchered in a Horrible Manner.

One's Head Was Crushed and the Other's Throat Cut.

Before Death the Eldest Woman Recovered Consciousness Sufficiently to Give Information That the Murder Was Committed by Her Son-in-Law.

BUTLER, Pa., Dec. 1.—A tragedy occurred near St. Joe station, eight miles from Butler, early Tuesday morning. Mrs. C. Hepler, with her daughter, Flora, recently married to James Martin, and son L. Nathan, reside in a large, comfortable frame house, near St. Joe station.

Mrs. Hepler is about 50 years of age, and her daughter about 25. Harper Whitmire, who is married to another Mrs. Hepler, has been with the family several days. Whitmire is about 40 years of age, and has been unfortunate for some time.

His mother-in-law was quite wealthy and held a mortgage on Whitmire's farm. They did not get along well together. Mr. Nathan has charge of a number of oil wells on his mother's farm.

About 9 o'clock Tuesday morning Nathan returned home from work and instead of finding the house in its usually orderly condition and breakfast ready, everything was turned upside down.

Toys were scattered, boxes and drawers had been ransacked. Entering an adjoining room, Nathan found his mother lying in death's arms, horribly mutilated and just breathing her last. There was a terrible gash in her forehead, showing where the fatal blow had been struck, apparently with the broad blade of a kitchen knife. Near by was the dead body of his sister, Flora, her throat cut from ear to ear.

Evidently she had been dead some time. Her body bore evidence of having been roughly handled. Nathan was almost paralyzed with horror, but in the momentary presence of mind, ran to the village station and gave the alarm.

Physicians were hastily summoned, and succeeded in reviving the mother to consciousness—she died soon after. Nathan, however, died at 11 o'clock. The county officers were summoned by the physicians at work on the case.

The crime had been discovered, and the police had been called to the scene.

Sheila-leat Campbell, of Oakland township, arrived early, and said that about 6 o'clock Harper Whitmire came to the house of his brother, Samuel Whitmire, and asked for the loan of a revolver. Whitmire asked him what he wanted with the weapon, and Harper replied: "I have killed two women, and I want to make an end of myself."

Sam refused to lend the revolver, and advised his brother to give himself up. On this Harper left and disappeared over the hills. Since that time nothing has been heard of him.

Before death Mrs. Hepler recovered consciousness sufficiently to give the information that the murder had been committed by her son-in-law, Harper Whitmire.

There is great excitement, and should Harper Whitmire be captured, it is doubtful whether he would have an opportunity to stand trial.
